

DESIGN BRIEFS

A Student Activity

Use the internet and/or other sources to define design brief. Find at least three examples and print them and attach them to this assignment. Develop your own design brief, choosing a topic that is appropriate for school use in this class or other classes. Remember to document sources for each part of the assignment, including internet addresses and authors when applicable.

I. Definition of a design brief (attach if more space is needed).

II. Examples of design briefs (attach).

III. Develop your own design brief (attach).
